

I absolutely can't live without VRS. It has made a tremendous difference in my life and the lives of my deaf high school students. Please require that all video phones can communicate with each other and that the wait time is no more than 20 seconds for the interpreter to answer.